Student Debt Delays Big Financial Decisions

Student debt is making it hard for young Americans to start saving for the future, according to the Bankrate website, which reports that approximately 60% of U.S. adults—and 70% of Gen Z and millennial borrowers—have delayed important financial decisions because of it, preventing them from saving for retirement or emergencies, buying a home, or paying off credit cards or other debt.

Overall, 27% of survey respondents said they were delaying saving for emergencies, and 26% have delayed saving for retirement. Specifically, 74% of Gen Z borrowers have put off financial decisions, along with 58% of millennials (26–42) and 42% of baby boomers (58–76). Gen Z is most likely to put off buying or leasing a car; millennials are most likely to delay contributing to emergency funds or buying a house.

Flag Day Trivia

Flag Day is June 14th, when Americans proudly display their patriotism by flying the U.S. flag far and wide. The design of the U.S. flag was originally established by the Second Continental Congress on July 14, 1777. The Flag Resolution stated: "Resolved, that the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."
