Happiness is an attitude. We either make ourselves miserable, or happy and strong. The amount of work is the same.

Brain Awareness Week

March 15–21. Brain Awareness Week is a global campaign to foster public enthusiasm and support for brain science. Every March, partners host imaginative activities in their communities that share the wonders of the brain and the impact brain science has on our everyday lives.

Republic Trash Service Update

Republic determined that we are still getting a discount for trash, $52.60 vs. $64.20 quarterly. They were unable to identify if we are getting a discount for recycling (charge is $13.20 per quarter). Please check into your rates to make sure we don't have too many trash pickup days around the neighborhood.

Minutes For January 24th, 2023 Met By Zoom

- Meeting called to order at 7:00pm.
- Board members present: Kathy, Sara, Krista, Jen, Mark, Marie
- Treasurer's report: Paid ~$1000 for the holiday hayride, between the horses, hot chocolate, and cookies. Exited the year with $8500, collected $490 so far this year. Leaves us at $8900 right now.
- Architectural control: N/A
- Covenant Control: N/A
- Media reports:
 - Add to newsletter: Trash company discount. We have only two main companies, since there were so many trash trucks around the neighborhood several years ago.
 - DUES Drive: Update the coupon if needed. Look at dates in the previous article.
- NEW BUSINESS:
 - Message board: Someone who's handy can look at the board to see if they can be done. Being held together by a screw and a piece of the board.
 - Trash pick up: Something in the newsletter about prices have gone up for everyone, but we still get the neighborhood discount. Republic and Waste Management are the two main companies.
 - Neighborhood book club: Trying to get more people together in between big events. Maybe add the idea to the Facebook main page. Maybe some movies in the park or backyards this summer.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

Unless you've been living under the Blarney Stone you already know that March 17 is St. Patrick's Day. Also affectionately known as St. Paddy's Day or St. Patty's Day, it's the one day each year that everyone and anyone can call themselves Irish – if not by birthright, then in spirit. If you have been living under the Blarney Stone, lucky you! We bet you can share a thing or two about how a religious feast day commemorating the famed Irish patron saint who brought Christianity to Ireland ended up being a day celebrated almost globally, usually involving copious amounts of green beer and whisky shooters.

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated in more countries around the world than any other single-day national festival, largely due to America's enthusiasm for what many consider a holiday, although it is not an official holiday in America.

Parades are the heartbeat of St. Patrick Day festivities in America. This is not surprising, since the first parade held in St. Patrick's honor took place in America, not Ireland, in 1601 in what is now St. Augustine, Florida. And the first actual St. Patrick's Day parade also took place in America, in 1737, although it was pretty much just a stroll down the middle of a street in Boston by a few Irish Protestants to honor the patron saint of their motherland. The first St. Patrick's Day parade in New York City was held in 1762, 14 years before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, and was organized by Irish troops serving in British colonies. Today the world's biggest St. Patrick's Day celebration is the annual parade in New York City, where more than two million spectators line the parade route, all claiming to be Irish, at least for the day.

Denver St. Patrick's Day Parade

March 11th, 2023

Denver's St. Patrick's Day Parade is one of the largest in the country, and it's a great place to toast your favorite saint. Running for over 60 years, nearly half a million people are expected to attend the downtown parade. During the parade, you can expect to see floats, dancing, live bands, charities, and local celebrities. Attendees can easily find some green beer to drink at one of downtown Denver's many bars.
