Garage Sale: June 2nd-3rd

Summer Bash: Aug. 26th

Covenant Reminder

Summertime is the time for camping and fun! It is also not the time to leave your camper or trailer in front of your home for days at a time. Covenants are rules set forth for the Williamsburg 2 neighborhood. The rules apply to anyone who lives in Williamsburg II neighborhood. If you have a trailer and you're returning from a camping trip or getting ready to head out for one, of course you're going to need to pack or unpack your trailer and clean it up. Keeping it there all summer long, or for days at a time, however is against our covenants. Your trailer should be stored behind a six foot fence or off site in an appropriate storage area. In addition to our covenants, there are Jefferson County rules in relation to parking of recreational vehicles and trailers on the street. Be a good neighbor, a considerate neighbor, and store your recreational vehicle after you use it.

Father's Day Activities For Every Kind of Dad

Host a Game Night: He taught you all his poker, Uno and Monopoly tricks, now it's time to literally beat him at his own game. Odds are the student won't become the master when it comes to card and board games with Pa, but you'll have a ton of fun trying to out weasel him, that's for sure.

Pack a Picnic: Fix up a lunch of his favorite foods (hello, roast beef on rye) and enjoy a picnic outside in your local park, or stay closer to home and eat al fresco in the garden or the front yard.

Have a Movie Night: Let Dad pick the film (even if it's some obscure historical documentary you have no interest in). Let him choose the snacks, too.

Share Some Memories: Make a greatest hits video of your family over the years and get everyone seated to watch it together. Make sure to play it on the big screen so everyone can see exactly how nervous you were at graduation. Cue the waterworks.

Work Out Together: Keep your dad in tip-top shape by cueing up a HIIT class on YouTube and getting a sweat on together. (Or if that's too much for him, try to get him to join you in your Sunday night vinyasa class.)

Go Golfing: Let him show off his stroke while you hone your skills. Alternatively, you can take him to a nearby Top Golf where you can also grab some bites and drinks.

Fire Up the Grill: Let Dad try out those new barbecue tools that you just gifted him and offer up these yummy BBQ side recipes to boot. You'll be looking at one very happy grill-master when all is said and done.

Play a Video Game Together: Even if he isn't the most technologically-savvy, we bet he can get on board with Call of Duty: Black Ops 3.

Enjoy the Great Outdoors: If you and your dad always bonded over camping trips or park visits, surprise him with an exciting day enjoying the great outdoors. You can either hit up a longtime favorite or test out a new location. 'Tis the season for hiking, fishing and cycling, after all.

Take a Hike: If you're not prepared to go all in on a full weekend of roughing it in a tent, don't worry—we all have our limits, after all. Instead, pack a satisfying picnic spread and schedule a day hike for some invigorating physical activity and time spent in nature. Bonus points if you make the experience extra special by picking a hike that culminates in an amazing scenic view.

Go for Ice Cream: Sometimes the best celebrations are the simplest ones—like treating someone to ice cream. Whether it's your own dad or the father of your kids, the guest of honor will surely appreciate this sweet and nostalgic activity involving everyone's favorite frozen childhood treat (preferably enjoyed at an old-timey ice cream parlor).

Go Fishing: Historically, your old man's favorite activity was filed in the 'snoozefest' category, but Father's Day is a perfect occasion to give it another go. In fact, you might be surprised by how much the adult you enjoys the quiet connection that comes from being out on the water, chatting with someone you love while you wait for a whopper to bite.
